DESCRIPTION

Fuoriclasse Leon Grappa Amarone Della Valpolicella Riserva represents the most exclusive production from this "Cru," crafted by master distiller Roberto Castagner. This grappa is made from the distillation of the grape varieties used in Amarone, in the heart of the Veneto region. Its aging process over several years in small cherry and oak barrels imparts an amber and radiant color, as well as a full and distinctive flavor that defines it. The intense aromas of cherries, ripe fruits, and subtle spicy notes blend with the fragrant nuances of precious woods.
